

OFFICES AT THE MEDIA CENTRE

Offering high class serviced office accommodation in impressive modern surroundings, The Media Centre has an excellent reputation with clients from the creative and media sector.

We currently provide 121 office spaces for over 60 companies employing 350 people, with a thriving community of innovative businesses and creative enterprises.

The Media Centre opened one of the most environmentally sustainable buildings in the region in May 2007, increasing the amount of available office space by 70%. The new building and the three existing victorian buildings are all stylishly and sympathetically developed to reflect the mixture of old and new that makes Huddersfield such a unique town.

The Media Centre's excellent central location makes it an ideal business location not only for access to Huddersfield's bustling town centre, but with train links just 2 minutes away, both Leeds and Manchester are within easy reach.

An office at The Media Centre brings a wide range of benefits including;

- outstanding onsite IT and telephony provision and support to the highest specifications.
- state of the art security meaning that you have peace of mind together with the flexibility of 24 hour access.
- All offices have access to kitchen, toilet and shower facilities.
- All post is delivered to The Media Centre reception and sorted ready for collection each morning.
- A range of bureau services are also available.
- With a lift to all floors, offices are easily accessible for all.

The on site coffee bar, Café Ollo, is an excellent informal meeting place and offers an excellent choice of food and drink in stylish surroundings, with loyalty schemes and special offers available for clients.

It is also the venue for our regular networking events, providing a chance for members of The Media Centre community to make new business connections.

RENTING AN OFFICE AT THE MEDIA CENTRE

The offices at The Media Centre are available for rental to creative and digital media companies.

All offices come with their own security alarm and carpeting and range in size from 150 to 2000 square feet, providing a varied choice to suit the individual requirements of each business.

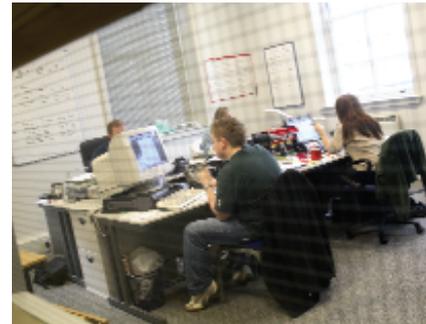

All offices have flexible lease periods and competitive rental prices.

"Its been a great benefit to be able to scale up to a size of space that's just right without having to take oversized space with an eye on growth. Flexible lease terms allows easier development planning. From a rental point of view we've never seen anything as good a value. Being in a focal point has really helped reach new clients"
